CrimsonBoracay

Welcome Note

The fourth quarter of the year is always a busy time for us here at Crimson Boracay, and it is characterized by events that draw families together for meaningful interaction and - most importantly - heartfelt celebration.

October is a particularly special time for us at Crimson as we have been working with the great ladies of StageZero by Project Pink Support Group to help raise awareness about breast cancer and to offer support to the heroic women fighting this off, as well as their families. That said, Passionately Pink returns with rosy-hued delights to tempt your fancy, where part of the sales proceeds will be donated to them.

The end of October brings Halloween with all its unbridled fun for children and the young at heart - and when the surf's up, our frightfully playful zombies come out, as well! We're offering a spook-tacular array of tricks and treats for everyone to enjoy at the witching hour.

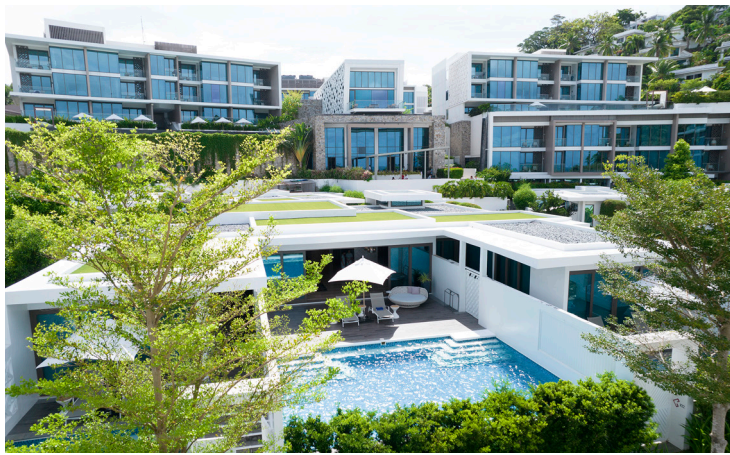

Finally, we wrap the year up with a wholehearted invitation to you and your family to Come Home for Christmas here at Crimson Boracay where we weave festive traditions together with contemporary pleasures for an unforgettable Yuletide Season and usher in a New Year.

Let us be your home for the holidays; you can be sure of the warmest Holiday welcome from all of us here at the heart of Station Zero.

Yours sincerely,

Patrick Manthe
General Manager

The Art of Giving

This Christmas, open your hearts to our local indigenous people, the Akeanon Bukidnon of Barangay Dalagsaan, Libacao, Aklan, and help them live better and more meaningful lives for a minimum donation of Php 100 which can be coordinated with our Front Desk or Reservation teams and added to your bill when you check out.

Throughout November and December, you can make donations for the revival of the community's livelihood program, an initiative made possible through coordination with the National Commission on Indigenous Peoples, the Department of Agriculture, and the Department of Trade and Industry.

This livelihood initiative will eventually bring beautiful crafts to Crimson Boracay's Live Love Local Shop where every purchase isn't just a memorable souvenir of your island sojourn, but active support for the Akeanon Bukidnon.

Accolades

Since 2017, Crimson has been supporting the fight against breast cancer through our flagship Passionately Pink program in partnership with the brave women behind StageZero by Project Pink Support Group, Inc.

Through an exquisite selection of culinary delights, intimate staycation packages, and other initiatives, we are proud to help those courageously battling breast cancer by spreading awareness and hope.
